

Dear colleagues and members of IUIS

This newsletter contains a couple of important announcements:

1. The 15th International Congress of Immunology 2013 will change its location from Rome to Milan in Italy. Please see the attached letter from Professors Luciano Adorini and Alberto Mantovani. The meeting will be held in a brand new and the largest congress center in Europe, August 22-27, 2013.

2. IUIS has actively started to develop new websites. The current one has received a new layout. Please, have a look at <http://www.iuisonline.org/iuis/index.php>. Comments, amendments and materials to be added to the website are welcome. Please, note especially the activities of the various IUIS committees.

In collaboration with the Frontiers Foundation we will also, towards the end of the year, set up a new, more interactive IUIS site with news, blogs, videos, etc. More about that in the near future. In the meantime, please, take the opportunity to send your manuscripts to Frontiers in Immunology. They have a nice "Research Topics" feature where you can assemble a collection of manuscripts in your favorite area of interest. <http://www.frontiersin.org/immunology>

3. The IUIS member Federations will have their 2012 meetings in exciting places:

a. The IUIS Council will gather in association with the ALAI congress in Lima, Perú. May 28-June 2, 2012. The congress president is Dr. José Aguilar Olano.
